Williams County Veterans Services January 2020

Our office recently had the privilege, with a major helping hand from Pioneer Police Chief Tim Livengood, to present a plaque and statement from the Til Valhalla Project. Pictured is Dan Bonney from the Veterans office, Grace Kreischer (widow of Brandon Kreischer), and Chief Tim Livengood. Brandon Kreischer was killed on July 29th 2019 while conducting military operations with the 82nd Airbourne in Afghanistan. The Til Valhalla Project was started when owner Korey Shaffer decided to immortalize his fallen brother and fellow Marine that took his own life. He decided after making the plaque that it was still too difficult, so he decided to gift it to the fallen soldiers mother. "We wanted to show these families that someone out there, is always thinking of their loved one, and cares about preserving their legacy. This is why Til Valhalla doesn't discriminate our fallen Heroes by cause of death or when they passed, we want to honor all fallen heroes equally, because they chose to selflessly serve our nation.
